Foreword to . . .

ROYAL SOUTH STREET SOCIETY'S

Australian Brass Band Championships

17TH TO 22ND OCTOBER, 1967

The South Street Society was formed on the 10th July, 1879 as a Literary and Debating Society having for its objects the encouragement of Debating and Literary activities amongst the youth of the City.

In 1891 the first Literary and Musical Competition was held for total cash prizes of £60 and attracting 250 Competitors.

As the years went by the scope of the Competitions widened and the Society under wise guidance prospered.

In 1900 the first South Street Brass Band Contest was held and has continued for a period of 67 years (excepting various suspensions occasioned by two world wars and other causes).

Band music is the music of the people. Bands make a great impact on the lives of our young people and provides them with an amenity which educates them and teaches a knowledge and love of music — the finest of the arts.

With the provision of Contests everywhere, Bands are now able to bring their performances to near perfection and present to the public musical entertainment which is a delight to the ear and a credit to the amateur Band movement.

Brass Bands are world wide. In Australia alone the Australian Band Council has affiliated with its State Governing Bodies over 300 Bands.

Further on in this programme will be found the Winners of all "South Street" Band Contests since 1900.

In 1965 Royal South Street Society took an important step in its history, when the Society acquired Her Majesty's Theatre, Ballarat. The building has been renamed "Memorial Theatre".

The Annual Eisteddfod is now conducted in this Theatre with the exception of the Calisthenics Section and the Brass Band Contests which will continue to be staged at the Civic Hall so long as circumstances demand.

Special Notice to Competing Bands

1. Secretaries and Conductors of Bands MUST OBSERVE PERFECT PUNCTUALITY in assembling and drawing for place at the time and places appointed, and in placing their Bands upon the platform (or the green, as the case may be) for the Contests.

2. Names of Bandsmen in each Band must be checked by the Victorian Bands' League Delegate by the time appointed for the Band to contest. All competing members of Bands must sign the Victorian Bands' League Appearance Sheet before they compete in any contest in each Grade.

3. Each Band in its numerical order, must be ready to march on to the platform (or the green as the case may be) before the preceding one has left the platform (or green).

4. A Band late at the draw, or not ready to proceed with the Contest as directed by the Managers, is liable to a fine or disqualification. The General Manager (or the Sub-Manager of any particular Session) will have sole control of the Contest, and all his directions must be carefully and promptly complied with.

5. The Secretary of each of the Bands for whom places are to be drawn must present himself (or some representative of the Band authorised on their behalf to do so) at the Manager's Office at times specified in this Programme. (Should a Band not be represented at the time of drawing, the Manager of the Contest will draw for such Band).

6. Drawing for places will be carried out on each occasion after the Judge has been screened.

7. Music Stands have been provided by Royal South Street Society, which must be used by all competing Bands.

WHEN WISE MEN DECIDE THE AWARDING OF A CONTRACT TO SUPPLY BAND INSTRUMENTS, MANY THINGS ARE TAKEN INTO CONSIDERATION.

ONE OF THE LEAST BEING THE DIFFERENCE OF A FEW DOLLARS DIFFERENCE IN PRICE

LIKE A BANK MANAGER THEY ALWAYS ASK THE MOST AWKWARD QUESTIONS, SUCH AS:—

WHO HAS GIVEN CONTINUOUS AND EFFICIENT SERVICE TO BANDS OVER THE LAST TWO DECADES?

WHO HAS SUPPORTED THE V.B.L.?

WHO HAS HELPED CITY AND COUNTRY BANDS WITH INSTRUCTION ON INSTRUMENT MAINTENANCE AND MUSICAL PROBLEMS?

WHO HAS THE ONLY WORKSHOP EQUIPPED AND STAFFED TO HANDLE ALL ASPECTS OF BAND MAINTENANCE?

WHO HAS THE LARGEST STOCKS OF SPARES AND ACCESSORIES?

WHO CAN GIVE THE FASTEST AND FRIENDLIEST SERVICE?

NEWS ITEM!

COUNCILS HAVE CALLED TENDERS FOR SEVEN SETS OF INSTRUMENTS SINCE XMAS.

WHO SUPPLIED THEM? YOU ARE RIGHT.
ALL SEVEN WERE SUPPLIED BY
