BESSON BRASS

...there's no sound like it.

The Besson range of brass represents a culmination of Boosey and Hawkes expertise in producing some of the finest sounding musical instruments available in the world today. They have been designed to meet the needs of musicians of all levels, from budding new students to seasoned professionals.

For the professional the Besson Sovereign sound, typified by the new Sovereign 928 Cornet (pictured left from the 900 series), gives exceptional response and superb intonation, and is heard in major symphony orchestras, symphonic and brass bands worldwide.

Likewise the 700 and 600 series offer the more advanced, and student player, instruments with excellent response and intonation coupled with robust design, ease of playing and unequalled value for money.

Whatever your needs the stunning sound of Besson brass speaks for itself — there's simply no sound like it.

WELCOME FROM

The Premier of Tasmania, HON. ROBIN GRAY, M.H.A.

The Government and people of Tasmania warmly welcome all competitors in the 1987 Boosey & Hawkes National Band Championships.

Music is an important part of our community life and brass and concert bands have been prominent in our development since the first European settlement almost 200 years ago.

The Championships are important for Tasmania. Firstly, they give our musicians the opportunity to compete against the best from other States and secondly, they give all the visiting competitors an opportunity to see something of our State and sample some Tasmanian hospitality.

Launceston's International Velodrome is a tremendous venue for these Championships.

The State Government sponsored the development of this facility to provide a badly needed venue, not only for the popular sport of cycling, but also for entertainment, exhibitions and events such as these band championships.

I am sure all those taking part over the Easter weekend will enjoy the facilities and produce their best performances in this top class auditorium.

I wish all competitors the best of luck and I look forward to hearing some fine music during the Championships.

(Robin Gray),
PREMIER

ALD. DON WING, M.L.C.

Mayor of Launceston,

March 4, 1987

It gives me great pleasure to welcome contestants and accompanying visitors to our city for the 1987 Boosey & Hawkes Australian National Band Championships.

I can assure you all that you will receive a warm and spirited welcome wherever you play - Launcestonians have shown a delight for band music since the 1800s and a sell-out is virtually guaranteed for the final concert in our Princess Theatre.

You will be playing at some of the finest venues in Australia - the Tasmanian International Velodrome will allow you to conduct the marching competitions under cover for the very first time - and I look forward to what will surely be a great spectacle at the velodrome.

I believe the last time these championships were held in Launceston was almost two decades ago, in 1969. That is far too long. Please, make sure it is not as long before we see you all again. In the meantime, enjoy our city as we shall enjoy your music and good luck in the competitions.

The organising committee would like to express sincere thanks to Ald. D. Wing MLC, for the valued assistance given during the preparations for the Nationals.

They would also like to wish the new Mayor, Ald. J. Tsinoglou a very successful and rewarding term in office.

NATIONAL BAND COUNCIL PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

Launceston, Easter 87

R. K. GOLDING.

The "Its Tassie in 87" theme has been spread around for quite a while and now, thanks to a very dedicated Team of Organisers, here we are in "Tassie in 87" with the Australian National Band Championships.

The future of Banding lies to a very great extent in the hands of the up and coming younger generations and to participate in this great event gives the opportunity for all to realise that all those hours of practice were really worthwhile. The Nationals do provide the enjoyment of competition and musical appreciation that will encourage our youth to further their talents and abilities.

The people behind the staging of the Championships are to be congratulated on their choice of Launceston and the wonderful playing venues it provides.

On behalf of the National Band Council of Australia, to the Organisers, Sponsors, Competitors and the people of Launceston. Thank you for being part of a weekend of Entertainment that I know will be enjoyed by all.

MESSAGE FROM RICHARD D. MACKIE
Managing Director
Boosey & Hawkes (Australia)
Pty. Ltd.

The organising committee for the 1987 Australian National Band Championships must be congratulated in having attracted such a good attendance in Tasmania particularly in view of the high cost of travel. Their innovative style in providing indoor facilities for marching band contestants at the Velodrome will be very much appreciated.

Our Tasmanian hosts are preparing a very warm welcome for all participants and we wish everyone an enjoyable and successful visit to this very attractive State.

MESSAGE FROM PATRICK T. REILLY
National Marketing Manager
Boosey & Hawkes (Australia)
Pty. Ltd.

It has been a pleasure working with the T.B.L. and their 1987 Contest Committee. It is a very difficult task to organise a National Championship at the best of times. The need to take into planning an appreciation of the participants extra travel further extends their difficulties. I again thank all those participating in the Nationals as it is the paramount event of the Banding Year. We are glad to see you are part of the event and wish you luck and an enjoyable trip.

FRED HODGKINSON

My special thanks to Chairman Allan, Secretary Hazel, Treasurer David and to the organizing committee in Launceston for their efforts, also to Sue Shea of Ansett for her time devoted to transporting the Bands from the other States, and Roy Newsomes flights between Perth, Adelaide, Melbourne and Tassie. ## A TRIBUTE TO ALEX LITHGOW

Alex Lithgow was born in Glasgow, Scotland in 1870 and moved to the New Zealand town of Invercargill in 1876.

By the age of 11 he was a competent musician his instruments being cornet and violin. He was, at that time, playing his cornet in Invercargill Garrison Band and became principal soloist five years later.

He was twice awarded the silver cornet as Dominion Champion.

In 1894 he moved to Launceston to conduct St. Joseph's Band. This was a time when bands were extremely popular and gave many public performances. In Launceston, the rotundas in City Park and at Cataract Gorge were the scene of many pleasant performances.

Alex Lithgow had an enthusiasum and talent that must have appeared unbridled. As well as his association with St. Joseph's Band he was bandmaster for the Launceston Regiment, conductor for the Campbell Town Band, conductor at the Princess Theatre, (during the "silent movie" era), founder of Launceston Orchestral Society and Launceston Concert Orchestra, compositor at the Daily Telegraph, publisher and composer.

As a composer he was prolific and brilliant. His march compositions included "Westbury", "The Southlanders", "March of the Anzacs", "Gippsland", "Victoria" and, of course the famous "Invercargill".

It was "Invercargill" that drew acclaim from the great Phillip John Sousa who, in fact, was to include it in his own concerts.

"Invercargill", named after the town of his youth, was also the name of his home at 151 George Street, in Launceston. It was at this house that he composed and it was from there that he published, not only his own compositions, but also Commonwealth Brass (and Reed) Band Journal.

Lithgow's compositions were not restricted to marches. He also composed two suites, "At the Movies" and "In Sunny Australia".

In later years he moved to "Holyrood House", at 136 St. John Street, Launceston.

Alex Lithgow died in 1929 and was laid to rest to the sound of massed Launceston bands playing "Invercargill".

LAUNCESTON

Launceston is known as the Garden City and is the gateway to Tasmania. It is the centre of approximately 70,000 people and is situated at the head of the Tamar River, confluence of the North and South Esk Rivers.

Launceston, founded in 1805, is older than all mainland capital cities except Sydney. Colonel Paterson landed at Oyster Cove (George Town) on November 5th 1804, but after a short period moved across the river to form a settlement named York Town. Colonel Paterson explored the Tamar River, and toward the end of 1805 a small group under Sgt. Dell was instructed to land at the head of the river with the intention of creating another settlement to be named Launceston after the large city of Launceston in Cornwall, U.K. Sgt. Dell landed where Ritchie's Flour Mill now stands, and built the first blockhouse on the site where the Old Brisbane Arcade is situated.

Launceston is full of old world buildings and has many parks and gardens, foremost of which is the 12 hectare City Park adjoining the Albert Hall, where some sections of the Championships will be held. A visit to the picturesque Princes Square with its fine surrounding buildings such as Moreton House, Milton Hall and St. John's Church, is worthwhile.

Possibly the best known tourist attraction is the Cataract Gorge and Cliff Grounds, a large natural reserve of flora and fauna, and only ten minutes walk from the city centre. It is interesting to note that on Friday, 13th March this year, circus performer Alfons Buglar, accomplished the feat of creating a world record in wire walking, crossing on the wire of the Chair Lift spanning the gorge, a distance of 308 metres, in 12 minutes.

Another major attraction is a visit to the Penny Royal Gun Powder Mill Complex, sail on the "Lady Stellfox", ride on the the old Launceston tram etc. A pleasant way to spend three or four hours.

The Launceston Country Club Casino, the second legalized casino in Australia, with its many and varied facilities, is also an excellent place to visit.

The city boasts two of the most aesthetically attractive pedestrian malls in the heart of its retail area, and a Civic Square featuring various forms of architecture from Georgian to a futuristic office accommodation.

There are many interesting and enjoyable areas to visit within the city and surrounding districts. Enjoy your visit, enjoy the sights; they are all worthwhile.

A FEW INTERESTING OBSERVATIONS

1. That Launceston was founded late in 1805 and is the third oldest city in Australia.
2. That anaesthetic was first used in Australia at St. John's Hospital (now Morton House, Charles Street) Launceston, in June 1847 by Dr. William Pugh.
3. That the first original Australian play (by Evan Henry Thomas) was produced in Launceston in 1835.
4. That the first iron railway ran from Launceston to Deloraine on February 10th, 1871.

BANDING IN LAUNCESTON

Brass Military Bands have existed in Australia since the first fleet sailed into Botany Bay, therefore our country is rich in heritage with martial music.

Launceston, founded in 1805 and being the third oldest city in the Commonwealth, can be proud of its association with the early inception of banding in the new world.

The recorded history of the numerous bands that have been formed since that time has been very erratic, but the St. Joseph's Band of Launceston claims to be the oldest band still in existence, being founded in 1845. Around about the time of the formation of the Launceston City Band in 1876, Launceston had in existence, as well as the two mentioned, the Trademen's Band, St. Pat's Fife and Drum, a string band, and also another drum and fife combination. In 1894 the Garrison Band was established with George Harrison as bandmaster (this may have been the early foundation of the Launceston Railway Silver Band). History records fierce rivalry between these three first class bands.

Launceston, while not possessing a band of A Grade standard, has carried on its early tradition and can be well proud of its banding history. It must still rank highly amongst cities of Australia in respect to ratio of citizens and musical combinations.

In a city of approx 70,000 people, Launceston has 4 Brass Bands, 1 Concert Band, 1 Highland Pipe Band, as well as a number of other musical combinations, e.g. T.S.I.T. Concert Band, Launceston Youth Orchestra, and St. Cecilia School of Music.

Space does not permit coverage of the history of all groups, suffice will have to be with the 4 Brass and 1 Concert Band, - interesting reading.

THE ST .JOSEPH'S BAND INC. was formed in 1845. The first bandmaster was the late Mr. John Agnew of the 96th. Regiment. One of the first charitable acts was to play at a bazaar held in the old Cornwall assembly room adjoining the Batman Fawkner Hotel. The bazaar was given in aid of the widows and orphans of the men who fell in the Crimean War and a substantial sum was realised.

In December 1876 the band chartered a special train for the Hobart Regatta and at that time many of the public were afraid of travelling on the line, being under the impression that the engine might at any time "take to the bush". The trip turned out to be a very successful one.

At the outbreak of the second World War saw the band depleted again in numbers of senior players and the duties were ably carried on by the sixty strong junior band under Prof. W.B. Caton of the Grenadier Guards Band and Bandmaster Cecil Gooding. This band toured Tasmania for several years and raised thousands of pounds for charities. Two of these members continued their studies in Sydney and later joined the Sydney Symphony Orchestra.

The band is today undergoing another revival and it should soon be able to take its place on stage in the not too distant future.

Bandmaster — Brian Ellis.

THE LAUNCESTON CITY BAND was founded in November 1876 by Mr Alexander Wallace, bandmaster of Dundee, Scotland, together with members of the disbanded Launceston Volunteer Rifle Band and other musicians.

In 1877, with a large instrumentation of a full Military Band, it won the Open Championship of Australia.

It is interesting to observe that up to 1958 the band had only 3 conductors - Mr. Wallace, Mr. J. Edwards and his son Mr. Chester Edwards. In 1906 Mr. C. Edwards was appointed band master, and the same year was successful in winning the Championship of Australia for cornet, at Ballarat. Mr. Edwards had the distinction of conducting the band for 52 years.

The Band has experienced a long and varied existence with radio broadcasts, Tivoli Theatre appearances, and the usual appearances at State Championships, together with many other engagements. The Band is at present undergoing a rebuilding program, and it should not be very long before they appear in the contesting arena again.

In 1929 the Band moved to its present bandroom in Bathurst Street, a valuable piece of real estate which is fully owned by the Band.

In 1916 the Band was engaged to lead the Launceston Fire Brigade to a church service in remembrance of comrades killed in action, and those who were still serving in WWI. After hostilities ceased the brigade decided to continue the service and asked the band to participate, an engagement which is still valid today.

Conductor — Noel Wheeler.                      Drum Major — Bob Young.

LAUNCESTON RAILWAY SILVER BAND. Records show that the band was first founded in 1904, with the main purpose to attend the first railway employees picnic. One book in Tasmania though, carried an advertisement for the picnic in the 1890's and mentioned the band. For the the first few years it is indicated that the combination functioned spasmodically, until it settled into a regular band.

It proved to be very strong in the 1930's, 40's and 50's, with sound financial footing due to the running of weekly Old Time Dances at the Albert Hall every Saturday night for 26 years.

Prior to WWII, most eligible members were also members of the 12th Battalion Band, and at the outbreak of war these members immediately enlisted in the A.I.F., being stationed at Brighton

Army Camp, Elphin Showgrounds and later Darwin. The Band, since WWII, has regularly contested at Ballarat and have attended Nationals in Launceston, Burnie, Sydney and Adelaide.

Retirement of several key players saw the band drop from B Grade to D Grade - it is now back to C Grade, finishing second at the Burnie Nationals 1981. Recent winners of the Joe Stanbrough Marching Championship.

The band is proud of a number of members with continuous service since the late 1930's and at present has six father/son or daughter combinations.

Musical Director - Mike Wheldon, Drum Major - Brian Callander
Practices are conducted at Band Room, Elphin Showgrounds, Mondays and Thursdays, where players learners and visitors are most welcome.

THE NORTHERN SUBURBS SILVER BAND was formed in 1940 as the Invermay School Band. The name was changed to the Invermay Silver Band in the late 1940's, as the average age of members increased.

In 1970 the name was changed to its present form to better reflect the area the band served and from where it drew its members. At the same time the uniform was changed to its current design and colours.

The band was Australian "D" Grade Marching Champion in 1975 and 1976 and in 1977 won the combined "C" & "D" Grade National Marching Championship. In 1975 its then Drum Major, Miss Carol Davis, was adjudged the Most Outstanding at the Sydney National Championships.

In State competitions, Northern Suburbs Silver has won a State Championship five times in the past decade. In 1977 & 1978, it won the State "D" Grade Championship. The band is the current Tasmanian "C" Grade Champion, having won the same title previously in 1978, 1979 and 1980.

The Northern Suburbs bandrooms are situated on the corner of Barton & Janefield Streets, Mowbray. Visitors are welcome to call in, either to play or listen, when the band practices - 7.30 p.m. Mondays & Thursdays. Learners of all ages most welcome.

LAUNCESTON'S BEL CANTO BRASS BAND was formed in July 1983, six members attended the first rehearsal.

The Band now has 28 playing members, only five of these have had previous experience. The Band is quite proud that they have introduced so many young members to the Brass Band Movement. The Band rehearses each Wednesday night at Ravenswood High School, and has marching practise occasionally.

Having travelled to Adelaide last Easter to compete in their first Australian Championships, the members are looking forward to participating again this year in their home city.

FIVE NAMES FOR MUSICAL EXCELLENCE

Besson

Buffet

Schreiber

Paesold

Winter

Have you ever listened to the world's greatest instrumentalists and dreamed of performing beside them?

In addition to total dedication and a great deal of practice you will certainly need a craftsman made instrument. An instrument that will enhance your tone and respond easily in all registers. It must also offer superlative tuning as well as giving greater flexibility with regard to articulation.

F Besson and Sovereign Brass, Buffet Prestige Woodwind and Schreiber Bassoons all represent the very pinnacle of achievement in musical instrument development. However you will also find the same care and attention to detail in our range of student instruments because we realise that right from the very beginning it's the sound that counts.

REWARD YOURSELF WITH THE INSTRUMENT YOU KNOW YOU DESERVE.
