Hon. M. J. Ahern, M.L.A.

Music in its various forms has always played a major part in our arts activities. Bands are no different. Certainly there would be no town or city in this State which could not point to its civic or school bands as part of the social and educational development of the community.

The 1989 Boosey and Hawkes National Band Championships offer a chance for musicians from throughout Australia to meet and compete.

To participants and supporters from interstate, there's also the opportunity to sample what Australia's premier holiday destination has to offer - stunning scenery, sub-tropical climate and a casual lifestyle conducive to good times.

I have no doubt the combination of music and friendship will ensure the Championship's success.

I extend to you all a warm Queensland welcome. May this Championship provide not only a challenge for the participants but happy memories of time spent in the Sunshine State.

Hon. M. J. Ahern MLA
Premier and Treasurer and Minister for the Arts

On behalf of the people of Ipswich, I offer to all visiting Bandsmen and their supporters a very warm welcome to our City.

Ipswich is proud to be the host City for the National Band Contest for 1989, and we will do all in our power to make your stay with us a memorable one. Ipswich has a long and proud tradition of involvement in not only the Band movement, but in many other cultural pursuits as well. Our Choirs, for instance, have for more than a century been the best in the State of Queensland.

I look forward to meeting many of our visitors personally during their stay, and I wish all participants an enjoyable and successful competition.

Mr K. Golding, President, National Band Council

Attending National Championships is always a pleasure for me but this time as a Queenslander, I would be less than honest if I did not admit to a little extra pleasure in the fact that it is our state which is hosting the 1989 Nationals. I am equally pleased that the event is being hosted by Ipswich because it's people have always been major contributors to the banding life of Queensland.

With so many talented musicians from all over Australia and New Zealand playing to talented and knowledgeable audiences, I am sure that the contest will be a great success. The thanks of the National Band Council of Australia go to the organizing committee and to Boosey & Hawkes for their continuing support.

To all contestants and visitors a very sincere welcome to this contest.
To the people of Ipswich --- Enjoy.

Bill Martin says Goodbye

Bill Martin who up to 1986 was the man controlling the Boosey & Hawkes National Brass Band Championships in Great Britain is about to take early retirement and move to sunny Spain after taking an overseas tour this year. Bill has travelled the world attending National Championships and has officiated at Denmark, Switzerland, Holland, Belgium, and many other countries. He was here in Townsville in 1982, he has been involved in bands since the age of eight years and he must have mixed with the greats of Britain and Europe and been part of the scene when great conductors and players were present.

In 1981 Boosey & Hawkes took over the British Brass Band Championships and this indeed was a challenge as some of the old ways needed changing as the contest was not as it was many years ago. Bill triumphed with a lot of new ideas and today the British Brass Band Championships is the greatest in the world. Bill will be renewing old friendships at Ipswich and we welcome him to this contest and wish him a long and healthy retirement.

BANDING IN QUEENSLAND

In the 1870's when the bands of England were forming what was known as the "National Association of Amateur Bands", the bands in Queensland Colony (as it was known then) had barely commenced. It would appear that the first contest held in Queensland was at the Brisbane Botanical Gardens in 1877. It was won on default by the Gympie Band which could have been a combination of the M.U.I.O.O.F. & G.U.I.O.O.F. Lodges. The Band travelled overland by horse and dray to Tewantin where it boarded the S.S. Noosa and then on to the contest. It was 20 years later that Queensland began to hold regular contests and in most contests bands were from the services such as the Artillery, Naval areas.

Little is known about our history in the period of 1877 - 1890 but private bands had sprung up with notables such as George Bloomfield who took a Naval band to Melbourne to appear at the formation of the Commonwealth celebrations. Other notables were Henry Grice of Brisbane, Messrs Snell and Percival of Gympie and Alf Hall of Maryborough. Mr Grice formed the Brisbane Municipal Concert Band which is still in existence.

Regular contests commenced at Toowoomba under the banner of the Austral Society and in 1906 there was a meeting of bands at Toowoomba which discussed the future of the movement and as a result the Queensland Band Association was formed and it has been the guiding force in banding now for the past 83 years. It took over the control of banding and the responsibility of organizing contests and these have now continued over those years with very little interruption.

Queensland had many notables in the early days, Chas Trussell was a great composer, arranger and conductor. There was Albert Wade, Bill Ryder (sen), Lou Gray, E. Jackson, W. Davis, Sam Whittaker, Jack Denovan, Albert Kaeser, Harold Perkins, Jimmy Clark, Horace Harper, Bill Bergemeister, Arthur Peek, Jim Napier, S. Ryan, Reg Dearlove, Jacky Brennan, Jock Henry, and so many others. In the middle era there were such names as Jim Compton, Digger Walmsley of Manly Concert band, G. Simpson, Billy Smith, Bill Ryder (jun) J.W. Gummow, Norman Henstridge, Len Crew that great trombonist and A.W. Trembath and into the fifties and sixties there was Les Baxter, Col Thomas and many others.

The Q.B.A. has had many able administrators and prominent among the early officers were Messrs A. Andrews, Cook, and Nicol both of whom were secretaries, Charlie Spargo, followed by Messrs Dunstan, Ryan as presidents, Will Jones, Len Seales.

George Cousins and Mr Caught held the position as president from 1928 - 37 and they took an active part in the formation of the Australian Band Council (now the N.B.C.). Charlie Green took over the presidency in 1937 and held it for over 30 years. Joe Foster was a long serving secretary and in that era we also had Col. Stan Cole, Tom Beatson and many others and these men, together with their team of amateur bandsmen, worked so hard to impart their knowledge to others so that the world might be a better place for their music and all of the time entertaining the public. And that tradition still continues.

In 1937 a contest was held in Brisbane and the prize money was 1,670 pounds, I will let the economists tell us what that amount would be today on current money values.. And so banding in Queensland is well and truly established and the movement continues to play an important part in the national life of the community.

Besson Cornets

Besson reigns supreme!

The cornet leads the band and Besson leads the world.

The elegant expression of every mood from the brilliance of crystal to the smoothness of velvet and precise intonation are just some of the reasons why the majority of fine soloists play Besson. The choice of the virtuoso!
