Once again it is my pleasure to be welcoming the competitors to a National Band Championship.

Each year some 3,000 band players and their supporters meet together to make music at all levels of age and ability.

This year the championships are to be held in two parts with the brass bands playing in Sydney and the concert bands playing in Wollongong. It is to be hoped that this innovation will result in giving assistance to players that enjoy both mediums and also as the concert band movement grows to enable more than just one day for the concert bands to enjoy their championship.

I know that once again a dedicated few have worked very hard over a long period to ensure that the championships at both venues will be successful. I extend to them the thanks and congratulations of the National Band Council and assure them that their efforts are very much appreciated.

No band event would be possible without the dedication of the Players, Musical Directors and Committees that make up the bands and to them I also extend the thanks of the National Council.

I trust that everyone will enjoy the competitive spirit of the championships and will return home happy in the knowledge that the experience was well worth while.

THE LORD MAYOR OF SYDNEY
COUNCILLOR FRANK SARTOR

LORD MAYOR'S MESSAGE

I am pleased to be given the opportunity to welcome to Sydney bands from Australia and New Zealand who will participate in the National Band Championships.

You visit Sydney at an exciting time. As host city for the year 2000 Olympic Games there is much work to be undertaken in preparing for this important event. Much of the work has commenced and already there is a feeling of anticipation as we look forward to the 2000 Olympic Games.

I am aware of the substantial contribution made by school, civic and community bands across Australia and I, like many fellow Sydneysiders, look forward to the Brass Band Championships.

I wish all of the competing bands every success in the Championships and I am sure your members will enjoy a most memorable and rewarding visit to Sydney.

Yours sincerely

PERCUSSION ADJUDICATOR

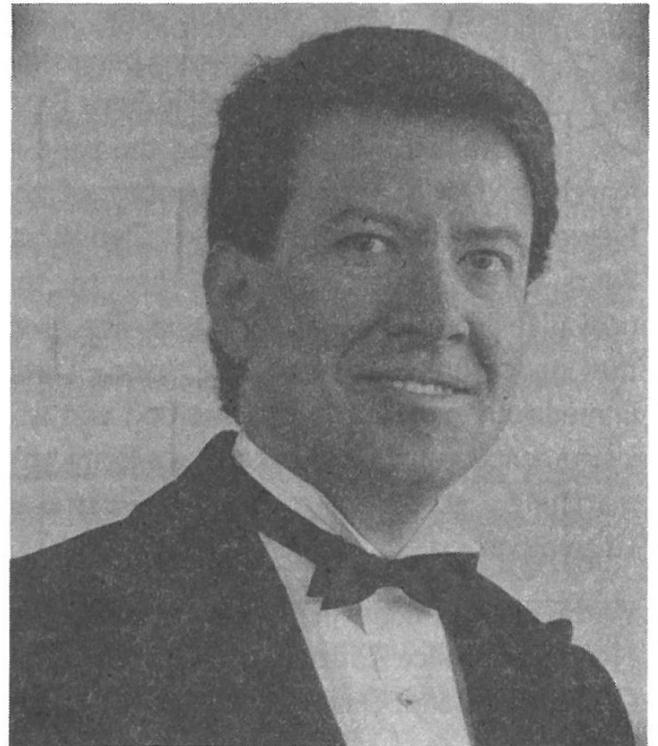

*A*fter studying classical guitar for 6 years, Brian became more interested in hitting things than plucking them.

In 1977, while studying under Richard Miller and playing with the Willoughby Brass Band and the Sydney Youth Orchestra Brian was chosen to represent Australia as a percussionist in the first Asian Regional Youth Music Camp held in Manila, The Philippines.

Since then, as a freelance drummer, timpanist and percussionist Brian has worked through a very wide spectrum of the music industry. He performs regularly with the Sydney Symphony, Sydney Opera House and Australian Chamber Orchestras. He has toured the United States and Europe with the SSO; Japan with the Australian Philharmonic and Europe with the ACO. Brian has also been guest principal timpanist and percussionist with the SSO on a number of occasions.

As well as all the major orchestras Brian has performed with and recorded for such diverse groups as The Australia Ensemble, The Seymour Group, Synergy and INXS - just to name a few.

Brian is also in demand as a session musician having worked on countless albums (commercial and orchestral) Radio/television and cinema jingles, documentaries and film scores, from Hanna-Barbera cartoons to feature films.

In addition to performing, Brian has composed percussion solos and adjudicated for many N.S.W. and National competitions. He has examined for the N.S.W. Conservatorium and Canberra School of Music, as well as directed percussion studies at Barker College since 1978.

avid Kurthi

CHIEF DRILL JUDGE

*A*t the age of thirteen when David Kurthi commenced playing percussion with the Waratah Mayfield Brass Band, he had a desire to lead the band in marching. David became a member of the Newcastle Police Citizens Boys Club Brass Band some years later and due to the unavailability of their drum major, was given the opportunity to lead the band. David immediately excelled in this position and was instrumental in the band becoming a formidable marching group throughout Australian Championships.

With drum majoring and training the Newcastle Police Citizens Boys (later Youth) Club Brass Band, David won eight (8) Youth Club Championships, five (5) Australian Championships and numerous State and Regional competitions and street parades. David has won three Australian National Drum major awards.

In 1988 David was invited to train and drum major the St. Mary's Band Club Brass Band to compete in New Zealand. With only six weeks to train the Band they won the New Zealand "B" Grade Display Marching Championships which no other Australian band had achieved. Since that time, David has continued to lead and train the band to two Australian National Championships and second on two other occasions. The Band has also been placed in the top three every year in the Street March.

David introduced the free style marching (oval marching) to New South Wales in 1986 with a series of weekend camps. He has maintained a high profile by organising and lecturing at drum major camps for the Hunter Regional Band Association.

David is highly regarded in marching circles for his commitment to excellence and professionalism in marching but takes a realistic approach by expressing, "I joined a Brass Band to play music and not be a marching girl, so lets enjoy marching".

David has adjudicated throughout New South Wales at numerous Regional Championships and Street Parades. This will be David's first appointment at an Australian National Championship.

EPISODES FOR BRASS - RONALD HANMER

This 1972 Composition by Ronald Hanmer has 5 contrasting movements. Starting with a resolute prelude it leads into a bright scherzo which requires a rigid rhythmic touch.

Movement 3 "Song Without Words" requires excellent control and a musical sense. the following "March" is steady in tempo and full of detail. The "Finale" is a bright finish to an excellent piece of writing by Ronald Hanmer.

VOICES OF YOUTH - EDWARD GREGSON

Edward Gregson's Suite: Voices of Youth is written in three movements, each depicting a different mood of youth. The happy thing about this music is that whilst the writing is modern in style and approach, and is interesting to play, yet the technical demands are not so high as to be forbidding.

These notes were taken from record sleeve of The National Youth Brass Band of Great Britain: "Voices of Youth".

MUSIC FOR A FESTIVAL - PHILLIP SPARKE

Written and published for the Youth Section Finals of the 1985 National Brass Band Championships of Britain. Brilliantly scored by one of the great writers for Brass Bands. There are many difficulties to be overcome. Starting in real festival mood the tempos are quite demanding. The brilliant Festival type opening leads into a beautiful slow section with many musical demands for both bands and soloists.

The final vivo requires excellent understanding of the compound rhythms by every player. An excellent test piece which will be enjoyed by both the players and the audience.

THE JOURNEYMAN - RAY STEADMAN ALLEN

The Journeyman is an attractive, tuneful suite of four movements whose style and moods are suggested by their subtitles. Wayfarer is rhythmic and perky. Pilgrim is in a more meditative vein with a flowing melody; a central section is cast to resemble a medieval dance. Sundowner may best be described as a 'soft shoe shuffle' with a lazy tune, whilst Commuter is a strong, bustling finale - Ray Steadman Allen. (These notes are taken from inside cover of Score).

DIVERTIMENTO FOR BRASS - DARROL BARRY

This excellent writing by Darrol Barry is in 3 movements. The first movement "Festival" has modern rhythms and requires accurate playing of the dotted quaver semiquaver passages. Solo's for Soprano and Flugel Horn in the middle section add a nice touch to this movement. The second movement "Romance" has some lovely chordal writing with romantic solos for Cornet and Euphonium. "March" The final movement is bright & rhythmic in style and an excellent finish to this excellent composition by one of England's best writers.

THE YEAR OF THE DRAGON - PHILIP SPARKE

1984 was not only the centenary of the Cory Band (The Premier Brass Band of Wales) but it was also the year in which they had the opportunity of completing the hat trick of British National wins.

To celebrate their centenary, the band commissioned Philip Sparke to compose a work to be premiered at a concert in March. Philip Sparke writes of the work;

"At the time I wrote "The Year of the Dragon" Cory had won two successive Nationals and I set out to write a virtuoso piece to display the talent of this remarkable band to the full. The work is in three movements.

1. TOCCATA opens with an arresting side drum figure and snatches of themes from various sections of the band which try to develop until a broad and powerful theme from the middle of the band asserts itself. A central dance-like section soon gives way to the return of this theme which subsides until faint echoes of the opening material fade to a close.

2. INTERLUDE takes the form of a sad and languid solo for trombone. A chorale of the whole band introduces a brief spell of optimism but the trombone solo returns to close the movement quietly.

3. FINALE is a real tour-de-force for the band with a stream of rapid semi quavers running throughout the movement. The main theme is heroic and march like, but this is interspersed with lighter, more playful episodes. A distant fanfare to the sound of bells is introduced and this eventually returns to bring the work to a stirring close.

Cory again won the British National Championship completing the hat trick making 1984 truly "The Year of the Dragon". The Dragon is the National Fauna Emblem of Wales. The National Colour is Red - hence "Red Dragon".

THE BELMONT VARIATIONS - SIR ARTHUR BLISS

Sir Arthur Bliss came to appreciate the great skill of Brass Bands when he first wrote for the Media (Kenilworth - 1936) and later (1959) when he became chief guest conductor at the concerts which follow the National Championships at Royal Albert Hall each year.

The Belmont Variations - This work opens with a short introductory figure on trombone and lower Cornets, followed by the theme introduced by Flugel Horn in the key of 'A Minor' (for Bb instruments). The first variation is a 6/8 played by Flugel, Soprano Cornet, Euphonium and Baritone with a lovely pizzicato like Bass in 2/4. The second variation is a "Chattering" figure played pp ending in a crashing fz. Variation three featured Euphonium in the key of Bb Minor - a wonderful change of key. A chromatic slow moving Bass and a triplet acc. on the other valved instruments plus solemn chords on Trombones give the variation great density and beauty. Variation four is in the nature of a light-hearted waltz in Bb Major played as Cornet Solo broken towards the end by a bravura cadenza for Cornet, Euphonium and Trombone, most unexpected and quite thrilling. Variation five is for full band in D Major - again a great change of key - the 'Tune' is first played on Trombones and 'thickened' by Bases a few bars later. The whole variation is brilliant and rhythmic.

Variation six opens as a Trombone Trio in F Minor followed immediately by a Quartet in F Major played by Flugel, two Horns and euphonium which is then carried on by full band in a quiet reflective mood - a perfect 'sandwich' between the fifth Variation and the Finale which follows. This takes the form of a stately polonaise. The frequent changes of key and of time keeps the interest alive to the very end. A perfect example of a master craftsman.

The piece takes its name "Belmont" after the town in Massachusetts U.S.A. where the composer's wife was born. It was composed for the National Brass Band Championships of England in 1963.

(These notes were taken from record sleeves from Brighouse & Showcase for Brass).
