Message from the President of the NBCA

On behalf of the National Band Council of Australia (NBCA) I bid all bands, soloists and supporters welcome to the 2007 Australian National Band Championships, Melbourne.

The 2007 Nationals Organising Committee, predominantly members of the Victorian Bands' League Management Committee, has secured very good performance facilities, a core of adjudicators and has toiled hard to prepare the programme of events. It is great to see Waitakere Brass, New Zealand, regular participants in the Australian National Band Championships 2007, as well as a newcomer; the Concert Band of the Clara Schumann Musikschule from Dusseldorf.

Organisation of the Australian National Band Championships is a mammoth task, not just in the preparation of venues, choosing music and allocating adjudicators. Liaison with all state governing bodies with regard to registrations, confirmation of own-choice music selected is within the set criteria and timetabling of events are time-consuming tasks. The National Band Council members are looking forward to a well prepared and conducted championship weekend.

You will see many volunteers at the various venues performing many duties; stage crew, front of house, door-keepers etc. Without a significant number of volunteers these championships could not take place. To the volunteer teams – "we salute you" and thank you for your valued participation.

Finally, I hope you enjoy your time in Melbourne, renew acquaintances, make new friendships, enjoy high quality music and to the contestants I wish you luck and may your performance reflect your commitment.

Robert A Bedwell
President, National Band Council of Australia

Welcome from the President of the VBL

Greetings to everyone who attends the 2007 Australian National Band Championships in Ivanhoe, Victoria, on behalf of myself, the members of my Organizing Committee, and the VBL Executive, Delegates and Members. No matter in what capacity you are with us – Official, Musical Director, Soloist, Sponsor, Trader, Volunteer, player, band friend or member of the audience – you are all important to us.

Whilst recognising that entrants from Far North Queensland and Western Australia have come long distances to be here, I feel I must give a special welcome to our guests from Düsseldorf in Germany, and to those from Waitakere, New Zealand.

In particular I would like to thank the Alfred Arthur Thomas Trust for its philanthropic donation to the Championships (I have provided more information on this in a separate article in this program), Billy Hyde Music Blackburn Pty Ltd for the use of percussion equipment, recording equipment and music stands, Yamaha Music Australia Pty Ltd for the use of pianos for the solo events and for a generous donation to the Championships, and to Muso's Media Pty Ltd for publicity, special trophies and also arrangements for broadcast/commercial recording of parts of the events.

The Organizing Committee has spent many hours and put in a great deal of effort in an endeavour to make these Championships run as smoothly as possible. We believe we have chosen excellent and convenient venues, and we also believe that these will add to your enjoyment of the five days over which the Championships will be run. It is nice to be able to say that, if there are difficulties, these have largely arisen from the overwhelming number of entries we have received. Thank you all for the vote of confidence you have given by your attendance, and I hope you all find the Championships a worthwhile, rewarding, and beneficial experience.

With All Good Wishes

Ian S. Douglas
President, Victorian Bands' League
Chairman, Organising Committee, 2007 Australian National Band Championships

Message from the Mayor of The City of Banyule

I am very pleased to send warm greetings from the City of Banyule to all participants, supporters and members of the general public attending the Easter 2007 Australian National Band Championships in our beautiful City.

We are fortunate that we have in our City the facilities required to mount the Championships. I am sure you will appreciate the atmosphere of The Centre Ivanhoe - an "art deco" centre designed by architects Leith and Bartlett, and opened in April 1937, but lovingly refurbished and added to since so that it now has state of the art facilities.

This, combined with the modern facilities of the Ivanhoe Girls' Grammar School Performing Arts Centre, will, I am sure, make for an ideal playing and listening environment for the Championships.

While you are in our marvellous City, I invite you to look at our history. We have long been famous for our interest in the arts - you may recall hearing of the "Heidelberg School" of painters. If you look at the names of the rooms you are using at Ivanhoe, - "Streeton", "Conder", and so on, these are named after some of those painters.

The "Banyule" homestead, after which our City is named, and which was an art gallery a few years ago, was once the home of pioneer and explorer Joseph Hawdon. It is now privately owned. The street in which many of you will assemble for your street march on Saturday morning bears his name also.

You can thus see that we are proud of our artistic heritage, and I can assure you that we are proud also to have your Championships in our City. I wish you all well during your stay with us.

Cr Wayne Phillips
Mayor, City of Banyule

Message from the Governor of Victoria

As Patron-in-Chief of the Victorian Bands' League, the State Governing Body organizing the 2007 Australian National Band Championships, I extend a warm welcome to all participants and their friends and followers. I welcome you all to both Victoria and to the Championships at The Centre Ivanhoe and the Ivanhoe Girls Grammar School Performing Arts Centre. I especially welcome international and interstate participants to Victoria. Victoria has many great attractions, and I encourage you to try to see many of them whilst you are here.

I know that the VBL's Nationals Committee has been planning this event for the last two years, and that it has amongst its members people who have organized many other similar events. From that experience, they have chosen venues with outstanding facilities, which I am sure will add much to the enjoyment of both the players and the audiences at the Championships.

I have no doubt that all participating bands and soloists will have put in a lot of effort in preparing for their performances, and in actually getting to the Championships. I wish them all every success. Whilst everyone cannot be a winner, I hope that everyone will be satisfied that they did their best on the day of the competition, and will be glad that they came and participated. I am sure that the work put in will show up in improved performance standards in the future.

Please enjoy your part in the 2007 Australian National Band Championships.

Professor David de Kretser AO
Governor of Victoria
Patron-in-Chief, Victorian Bands' League

Chief Adjudicators

Chief Music Adjudicator – Brass Bands

Ken MacDonald, BA (Mus.), Grad. Dip. Ed

Ken MacDonald was one of those fortunate people to be born into a musical family, and to grow up in an atmosphere where music was part of daily life. He was born in Sunderland, England, at the end of the Second World War. Even though Ken has studied and played under many famous musicians, he firmly believes that he owes most of his success to his father, Stanley, who taught and encouraged him as a young boy. Stan (who has since passed away) conducted many Brass Bands, composed and arranged and concentrated a lot of time to the development of younger players, his involvement spanned over seventy fruitful years. At the age of 11 Ken started his playing career, and over the next 5 years gained many honours in Solo Competitions, including a hat trick of wins at the Northern England Championships.

He was accepted into the National Youth Orchestra and Youth Brass Band of Great Britain after a series of auditions at the age of 14. In 1966 he was approached by Harry Mortimer to join one of his "MEN OF BRASS" Bands, Morris Motors, this was the beginning of his association with England's Top Bands.

The following year Ken took up his first teaching post in Barnsley, Yorkshire and joined the world famous Grimethorpe Colliery Band as Assistant Principal Cornet and was soon promoted to Principal Cornet. In 1974 Ken made another career move, to the renowned Black Dyke Mills Band. The following 9 years proved even more successful in many areas: Contests, cutting numerous records, making many Television and Radio appearances, and playing an average 80/100 concerts per year.

Since his arrival in Australia in 1983, Ken has played a significant part in the development of Concert and Brass Bands throughout Australia, imaginative concerts, the production of many compact discs and an enviable record of Competition successes. He has adjudicated throughout Australia, America and New Zealand, made many guest appearances (playing and conducting) and conducted seminars and workshops for Boosey & Hawkes and Yamaha. He retired from serious playing to take up the position of Musical Director with Hawthorn City Band in 1985, leading them to 5 National Championships and many State and overseas titles, as well as tours to America and New Zealand. He took over the leadership of Footscray-Yarraville City Band in 1998 and very quickly built them up to be one of the finest in the Country.

Chief Music Adjudicator – Concert Bands

Maj. Graham Lloyd, M.Mus. (Melb.), ARCM, LTCL, A.Mus.A

Major Graham Lloyd enlisted into the Australian Regular Army in 1972 as an Apprentice Musician studying the clarinet. Upon graduation he received the Boosey and Hawkes prize for instrumental proficiency, and was posted to the 4th Military District Band in Adelaide, South Australia.

In 1976 he was detached to the Army School of Music, Balcombe, Victoria, as a clarinet and theory instructor. The same year, he was posted to the Band of the First Recruit Training Battalion at Wagga Wagga, New South Wales, followed in 1977 by a further posting to the Army School of Music as an instructor where he was promoted to the rank of Sergeant and later Staff Sergeant.

In 1982, he began his Student Bandmaster Course at the Royal Military School of Music Kneller Hall, Twickenham, London. He received: the Besson Cup and Medal for gaining the highest marks in the Ministry of Defence Examinations; the Somerville Prize for best concert band arrangement; and the coveted Worshipful Company of Musicians Trophy and Silver Medal for the best overall student of the course.

Upon his return to Australia in 1985, he was promoted to Lieutenant and appointed as the Second in Command/Deputy Music Director of the Band of the 5th Military District, Perth. In 1987, he was posted to the Defence Force School of Music in Macleod, Victoria, and promoted to Captain. In 1989, Graham was posted as the Second in Command/Deputy Music Director of the 3rd Military District Band in Melbourne, Victoria.

He then accepted the position of Director of Music, Royal Australian Air Force (RAAF) and Commanding Officer of the then RAAF Central Band and was promoted to Squadron Leader. In 1997, he was appointed as the Commanding Officer of the Air Force Band. Following a further restructure in 2000, which saw a reversion back to separate bands, he was posted to RAAF Training Command, Laverton, in charge of Air Force music policy and the direction of Air Force bands.

In Feb 2004, Graham accepted the position of Officer Commanding/Chief Instructor at the Defence Force School of Music and subsequently transferred back to the Army.

Graham's main interests are conducting, composing, arranging and teaching. His Concert Band work, Prelude for a Festival, won the 1988 Yamaha Composer of the Year award. Additionally, he has arranged and composed over 400 works for Concert Bands, Brass Bands and orchestras for every possible occasion from major concerts in the Opera House to the Edinburgh Military Tattoo in Sydney in 2005. He completed his Masters in music composition at Melbourne University in 1999 studying with Professor Brenton Broadstock.

As a conductor, major highlights include: the 70 piece United States Air Force Band in Washington D.C. in 1999, conducting the RAAF Band at the 1995 Royal Tournament in London, and conductor of the Federation Bells and Brass Concert at the Sidney Myer Music Bowl, Melbourne 2001, which featured over 500 performers and was the final concert for the Melbourne International Music Festival celebrating 100 years since Federation.

The Alfred Arthur Thomas Trust

by Ian S. Douglas, President, VBL

The Nationals Committee of the Victorian Bands' League acknowledges a significant donation towards the cost of running the 2007 Australian National Band Championships from the Arthur Alfred Thomas Trust. The Trust is currently administered by the Equity Trustees Ltd.

The story of the Trust begins with the arrival in South Australia in 1844 of William Charles Thomas, at the age of seven years. He eventually founded a flour milling "empire", with its first mill being built in Lawrence Street, Beaufort, Victoria in 1870. Over the whole of its existence of 107 years the W.C. Thomas and Sons Pty Ltd flour milling company had operated ten mills across the Wimmera, (but not all at the one time). Thomas had one daughter and four sons, one of his sons being Arthur Alfred, who was born in Beaufort. Arthur and his three brothers were active in their father's business, and their sons in turn eventually also became involved.

W.C. Thomas was a civic minded man, who treated his staff very well. He was a staunch Primitive Methodist, was a councillor of the Shire of Ripon for 12 years, and Shire President for two years. He died at the age of 82.

Arthur Thomas evidently inherited the good qualities of his father, for later in life he was an outstanding citizen of Essendon, being a City of Essendon councillor for 11 years, and Mayor between 1925 and 1927. He was married later in life (1928), at the age of 59, to Ivy Hamilton Schofield. They had no children. In 1935 he was elected to the Melbourne City Council, but eventually resigned due to ill health.

Like his father, he was a staunch Methodist, and was described as being of a charitable disposition, broad understanding, a great friend to many, and helpful to many whose need was brought under his notice. He was a Masonic Lodge member also.

He died on 20th April 1944 at his home at 36 Leslie Street Essendon. His will showed that he left an estate of some £110,000. As he had no children, after he had made provision for his wife, nephews and nieces and some friends, he left the bulk of his estate in a charitable trust. He provided that the available income of the trust should be distributed around September each year to charity (in the widest sense).

Arthur did have a musical interest, having been the organist at the Beaufort Methodist church, and his brother, William Charles Frederick Thomas married Georgina Harriet Heathershaw, of Caslemaine, daughter of the local minister, with Arthur as his best man. Miss Heathershaw had studied piano, and some years earlier gave private lessons at the Thomas residence in Beaufort. We cannot say that these family musical interests have given rise directly to the donation we have received, but they may help us believe that we are a fitting recipient.

Once again, we thank the Trustees of the Arthur Alfred Thomas Trust for their generosity.

I also thank Pam Weller, Secretary/Research Officer of the Beaufort Historical Society, and Lenore Frost, President of the Essendon Historical Society for supplying information on which this brief summary is based. Information was also obtained from the Wills and Probate archive of the Victorian Public Records Office.

The Fireman's Helmet

The first Melbourne Fire Brigade (MFB) Band existed from 1900 to 1950, and won the Australian National Championship four times. It was never defeated in a marching competition. It was disbanded (no pun intended!) in 1950 whilst it was still the Australian Champion band.

In its second existence from 1965 to 1970 the Band under Mervyn Simpson won six contests including two Australian Championships (1968 and 1970). History repeated itself, when in November 1970, the Melbourne Fire Brigades' Board decided not to continue its support for the Band, which consequently disbanded again. The Band therefore has the dubious honour of being the only one disbanded twice whilst holding the Australian 'A' Grade Championship! Alan Ball was a BBb bass player with the Band. With some eleven other members he followed Bandmaster Mervyn Simpson to Footscray City Band in 1971.

In 1972 Alan donated his brass fireman's helmet, and MFB Superintendent Jack McKimm, who was also Manager and Deputy Conductor of the band, organized its being mounted as a trophy. While it was not openly stated, the connotation was that the trophy was a memorial to the Melbourne Fire Brigade Band.

It was therefore fitting that Footscray City Band, under the baton of Mervyn Simpson, former Bandmaster of the Melbourne Fire Brigade Band, won the trophy in the three following consecutive years of 1972, 1973 and 1974.

Names of players from the MFB Band who went to, or played with, Footscray-Yarraville include: Jack McKimm (cornet), Merv Cavell (cornet), Arthur Withers (cornet), Henry Bowyer (cornet), Alan McKimm (cornet and flugel horn), Doug Trottman (tenor horn), Ian Fowler (tenor horn), Claude Scanlon (baritone), Bill Wheatley (euphonium), Charlie Ring (trombone), Laurie Lavelle (Eb bass), Albert Hathaway (Eb bass), Alan Ball (BBb bass), Arthur Fenton (percussion).

Compiled by Ian S. Douglas from various sources, including discussions with Keith G. Hamilton (former Secretary of Footscray City Band) and sleeve notes on vinyl records "Farewell Blazing Brass" (MFB Band) and "Victors' Return" (Footscray-Yarraville Band).

We make Legends

Vincent
Bach

In 1955, four trumpets created by Vincent Bach were selected by Adolph Herseth and his associates for the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. Under the batons of Reiner, Martinoff, Solti and Baronboim, these instruments are the foundation of CSO recordings praised as some of the finest performances ever. Today, these trumpets are still revered, still in use, and still the property of the Chicago Symphony.

Xeno Cornets

The Xeno name has become well established as the brand of choice for discerning trumpet and trombone players. And now Yamaha has incorporated what they've learned developing these orchestral instruments, into some new cornets. The Xeno cornets were developed in close collaboration with some of the worlds best players and in particular David King, cornet soloist, Head of Performance Studies at the University of Salford and principal conductor of the Yorkshire Building Society band. David worked closely with Frankfurt based Yamaha R&D expert Thomas Lubitz, and the new instruments result from 2½ years of research and experiments.

Xeno B $\flat$ Cornet YCR-8335

Bore size: 11.9mm (.469")

Xeno cornets come in deluxe cases which provide excellent protection.

David King

David King is one of the most dynamic figures in the brass band movement and has accomplished extraordinary musical achievements as a soloist, conductor, and educator. As a cornet soloist David has won numerous awards including the British Open Solo Championship for five consecutive years and the prestigious International Brass Musician of the Year. David is also regarded as one of the greatest conductors to arise from the brass band world and has represented England in the European Brass Band Championships on eleven occasions, winning an unprecedented ten times.

The new E $\flat$  cornet has been designed to provide comfort and security when performing in the high register, while maintaining a beautiful warm sound in any range. The intonation is incredibly accurate and the cornet plays with an even, nimble response.
