CONTEST PERSONALITIES

Music Adjudicator : H. R. Shugg, Esq., late conductor famous Malvern Tramway Band, thrice winners "A" Grade Melbourne Exhibition Contests, thrice winners "A" Grade Ballarat Championship Contests. Also winners of New Zealand and Queensland Band Championships. Mr. H. Shugg has judged "A" Grade and Championship Contests in New Zealand and every State in the Commonwealth. The Tas. Bands' League is honoured by his appearance here as Adjudicator.

Collingwood Citizens' Band—Conductor, F. C. Johnson, Esq. Rated and acknowledged as one of the best band trainers in the world. Conductor of famous Metropolitan Fire Brigade Band (Melb.), present holders of Australasian Band Championship and winners "A" Grade Championships in every Australian State. Mr. Johnson has earned fame as a band adjudicator, having judged throughout the length and breadth of the land.

Ballarat Returned Soldiers' Band—B. Rasmussen, Esq. His band's fine performance won it "B" Grade at South Street, Ballarat Contest, 1948. Under his able tuition and training his band has earned "A" Grade honours and is a worthy competitor in Championship Class. Mr. B. Rasmussen's ability is well recognised and his career has been wide and varied. He is a returned soldier from World Wars 1 and 2.

Maryborough Citizens' Band—J. Harris, Esq. Promising leading band conductor and Champion Cornetist. Through his energy and ability, his band has advanced from "C" Grade to "A" Grade in a period of two years. A very fine performance and an indication of the merits of Mr. J. Harris' prowess as a band trainer.

Drill Adjudicator—J. Stanborough, Esq. Successful drill adjudicator at numerous contests. His ability and decisions have won for him the honour of judging this, the Australian Band Championship—a great honour indeed.

Gentlemen—The Tas. Bands' League welcomes you to Tasmania and thanks you for the education the bands of Tasmania will derive from your efforts.
