His Excellency The Right Honourable Sir Ninian Stephen
A.K., G.C.M.G, G.C.V.O., K.B.E., K.St.J.
Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia

Message from
Rt. Hon. R. J. L. Hawke,
Prime Minister

I am pleased to have this opportunity to welcome to Canberra all participants in the 1984 National Band Championships. This is the first time in the long history of the Championships that they have been held in the National Capital, and I know the people of Canberra will appreciate the opportunity to hear some of the finest bands in the country.

Brass bands have a long tradition in Australia, with the first civilian band being formed in 1845. They have provided an important service as well as musical training and entertainment for the community. It is pleasing to see that in an era of electronic entertainment facilities, not only have brass bands maintained their popularity, but there has also been a marked increase in the involvement of young people, for which thanks must go to the dedicated leaders in the schools, councils, police boys' clubs and senior bands.

I hope you all enjoy the camaraderie of the Championships and benefit from the opportunity to learn from each other and exchange ideas, and I offer my best wishes to all involved.

Message from
Tom Uren, MP.
Minister for Territories and Local Government

I wish to congratulate the National Band Council of Australia for its fine efforts in organizing the Boosey & Hawkes Australian National Band Championships in Canberra this year. I am sure the people of Canberra will enjoy the music and spectacle of this event.

The popularity of bands and their style of music has again emerged and increased dramatically over the last few years. I am told that Canberra can now proudly boast a total of 39 community and school bands to cater for all levels of interest.

I, on behalf of the people of Canberra, wish the organisers and sponsors every success with this far-sighted venture.

Best wishes.

Welcome to Canberra!

Although you'll be busy in your few days in the National Capital, we hope that you'll have the chance to see a little of the city and its attractions.

A mere 71 years old, Canberra is a 20th century city and, even with a growing population of 240,000, it still retains the vision of its planner, Walter Burley Griffin.

It is, as he designed it, a city of light and space — a garden city.

There are many great buildings, historical monuments and national treasures. Several tours run each day from the Civic coach terminal taking in the major ports of call such as the War Memorial, National Gallery, Telecom Tower and Parliament House.

You might prefer to simply relax by the lake. Perhaps take a cruise or hire a paddle-boat or bicycle — Canberra in the autumn is easy to enjoy.

Perhaps you can squeeze in a round on one of our seven Golf courses or visit the charming miniature village, Cockington Green or stroll through the Botanic Gardens.

Whatever your plans, allow a little time to explore your National Capital — it won't disappoint you!

MESSAGE FROM
RICHARD D. MACKIE,
MANAGING DIRECTOR,
BOOSEY & HAWKES
(AUSTRALIA) PTY
LIMITED

As official Sponsors we are extremely proud to be associated with the 1984 Australian National Band Championships. Boosey & Hawkes celebrates its 50th Anniversary in Australia this year, which marks a long and enjoyable association with the Band movement in this country.

Choice of environment is invariably critical to the success of competitive banding therefore we are confident that the magnificent facilities in Canberra will greatly assist in making the 1984 event both successful and spectacular.

Community support is vitally important to the future of the Band movement, in both its competitive and social activity and we look forward to seeing maximum audience participation at the Canberra event. The Australian content of this year's programme will add even further to its appeal.

We congratulate the National Band Council and their Canberra colleagues on their efforts in organising and staging such a prestigious event.

Richard D. Mackie

PERSONAL MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL BAND COUNCIL OF AUSTRALIA

— HARRY BLUCK A.M., J.P.

On behalf of my fellow National Band Councillors who are the Delegates and Band organisation Committees in all States except the two Territories I extend a warm welcome to all visiting and local bands personnel and their friends, families and supporters.

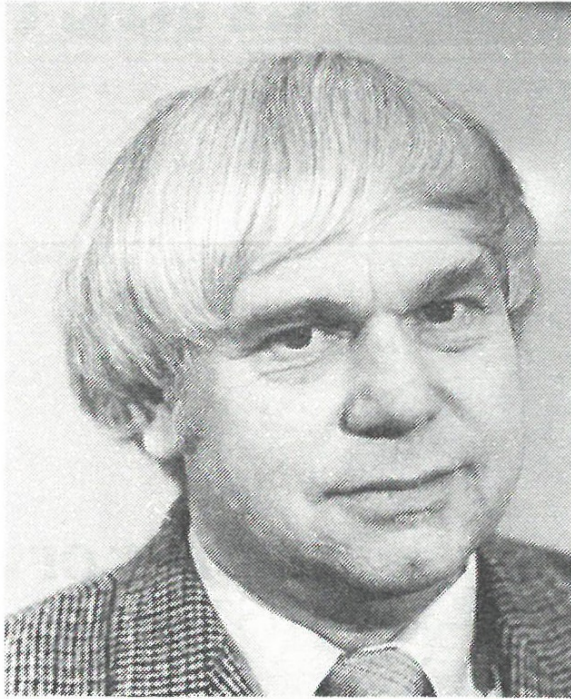

It was a bold step that our National Band Council took to mount the 1984 Australian National Band Championships in Canberra for the first time in the history of banding in Australia; it was an even bolder step when an emphasis was placed on the choice of Test Music to be Australian composed or transcribed for the 8 Band Divisions and Grades and the 26 Brass Solo Sections.

These 1984 Boosey & Hawkes and N.B.C. Australian Band Championships should provide a memory-lasting opportunity for Band Members throughout Australia to participate once again in our traditional annual National Contesting and we wish to thank our sponsors Boosey & Hawkes (Aust.) Pty. Ltd. and the Ministry for the A.C.T. for their assistance in so many ways in making the 1984 Nationals possible.

The venues provided by the Canberra School of Music and the Australian National University are magnificent with tremendous co-operation from the staffs and administration; add to this the utmost patience and efficiency of the Honorary Canberra Organiser Mr. Don Allan in bringing it all together in Canberra as one of the major musical events in the Commonwealth.

Finally, to our many members and volunteer helpers in all States who have contributed so warmly and generously in mounting these Nationals — go our warmest thanks from the National Band Council of Australia.

HARRY BLUCK
NBC PRESIDENT

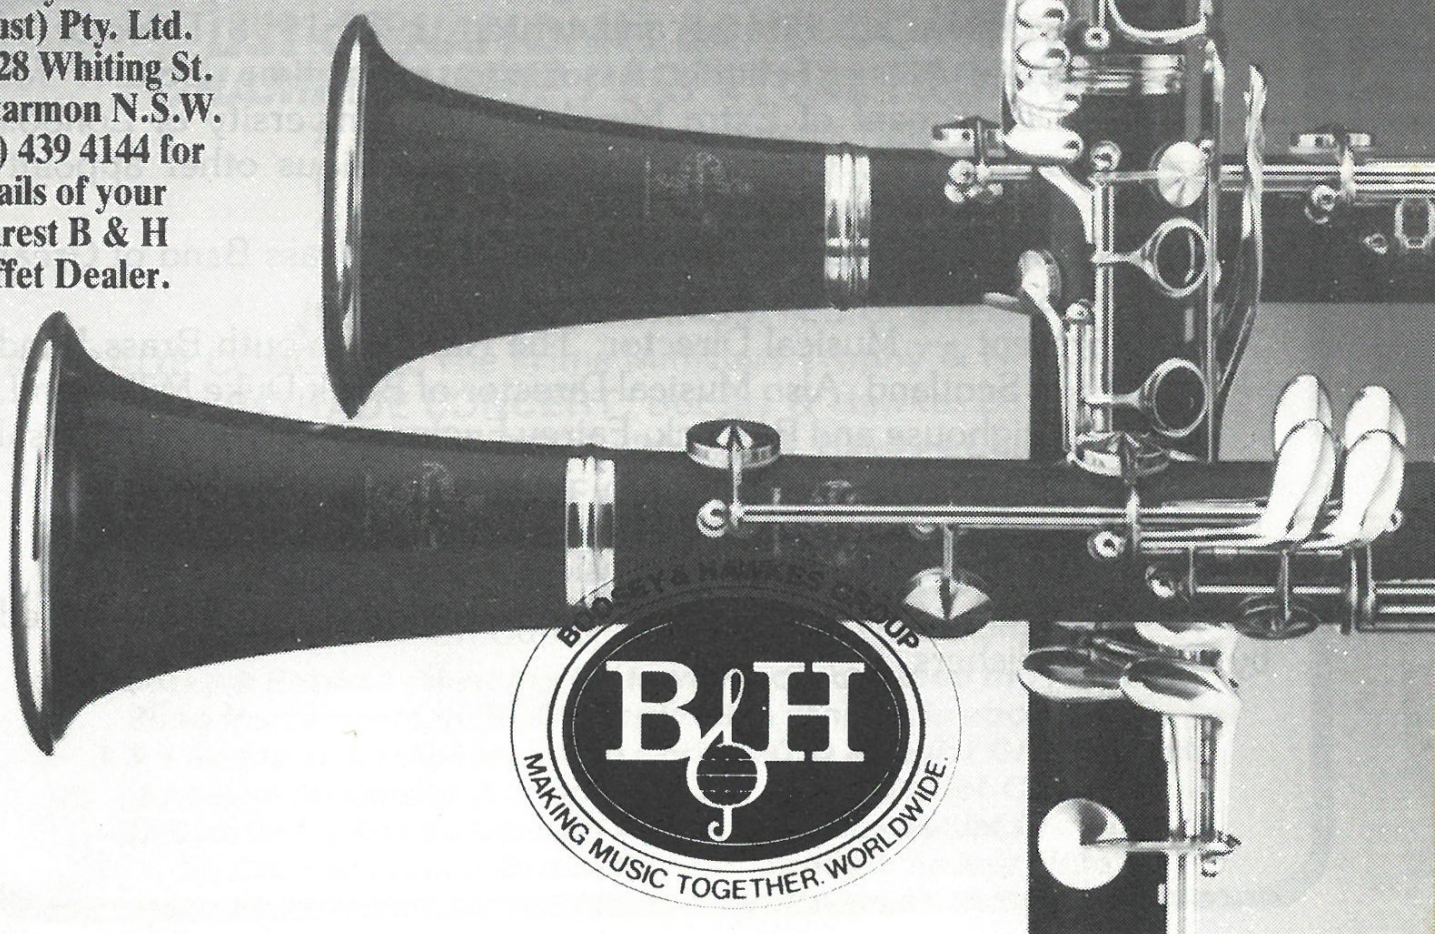

DR. PETER G. CLINCH

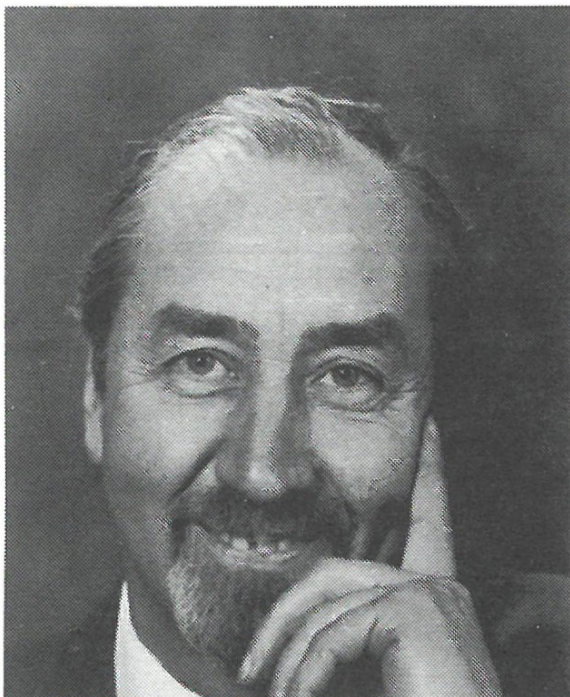

Peter Clinch was born in Western Australia and began studying music at the age of nine, making his first solo appearances on clarinet and saxophone for the Australian Broadcasting Commission at a very early age. Before he was 20 years old he had gained an outstanding reputation for his performances with opera, ballet and symphonic orchestras, as well as chamber and jazz ensembles, often as a soloist. Peter Clinch's talents also encompass arranging, composing and conducting, and at one point in his career he played principal solo clarinet in the Royal Australian Air Force Central Band and for 10 years was Principal clarinettist with a T.V. studio orchestra in Melbourne. Among his many current chamber music activities he regularly tours overseas with the Australian composer Felix Werder's contemporary ensemble — Australia Felix. He is in great demand as a woodwind clinician. Peter Clinch has been a celebrity solo artist for the Australian Broadcasting Commission on three occasions, working as a soloist with all the Australian symphony orchestras and on National Television.

Originally from Queensland, Tom Gawn featured early in Brass Bands as an outstanding Euphonium player; he later majored during an English University career as a brilliant pianist and violinist in addition to engineering degrees. He has been a prominent Adjudicator in all States for Brass Contests and Eisteddfods as well as Conductor of the Wollongong Band that won the A Grade N.S.W. Championships on six occasions. For 3 years he was the President of the N.B.C. and President of the N.S.W. Band Association. As a hobby he has in recent years privately recorded the majority of the known classical piano solo repertoire.

PROFILE ON JUDGE:

C.P. "Jimmy" JAMES, M.B.E. Western Australia.

In 1949 "Jimmy" James formed the Western Command Band for the Army in Perth, this later became the 5th Military District Band and in 1953 he assisted in the formation of the Australian Army School of Music; he became a household name to many Army and civilian bandsmen during that time as a strict musical military Musical Director.

He was born in Wales, joined the British Army as Band-Boy in 1929 and served at-home and abroad with the Welsh Regimental Band until 1945 when he served as Army Band-master Trainee with the Royal Military School of Music.

"Jimmy" was awarded the M.B.E. in 1960 for his musical services, and in 1964 became Principal Tuba with the W.A. ABC Symphony Orchestra adding to his experience with B.B.C. and Welsh National Symphonies.

He is currently very busy training Junior bands.

B GRADE BRASS TEST SELECTION

“The Charge of Ghaza” by celebrated Melbourne Composer and Orchestrator the late Larry Keane Snr (1982) is a descriptive piece describing the exciting atmosphere of the Australian Forces at war in the Middle East. It has been recorded by the Footscray-Yarraville Band.

PROFILE ON JUDGE:

NEVILLE DUNIAM QUEENSLAND

47 years banding experience in all areas of Australia for Neville Duniam involved him in service in such bands as the Royal Australian Navy, Hobart City, Kensington Norwood, South Aust. Police and Brisbane Excelsior; as a Trombonist he won 2 Australian titles, several State titles in South Aust. and Queensland as well as their Champion of Champions.

Neville has drum-majored as an “extra” for 25 years and when health required the Trombone to be put aside, he majored in Drill Adjudication in 1976 in Queensland and every year since then has judged at either a National or State Marching contest of which the 1984 Canberra Contest is his proud 5th National appointment.

Neville Duniam is the current third year President of the Queensland Band Association and member of its State Drill Advisory Panel.

A GRADE TEST SELECTION

“WESTERN LAND” (“BROOME”/W. LOVELOCK)

The W.A. Band Association in 1970 held an Australia-wide competition for a Brass Band composition. It was won by W. Lovelock of Brisbane under the pseudonym of “Broome”. It is a descriptive piece of the pioneering days of Western Australia.

Profile on:
Ken Huckstepp
Percussion Judge

Ken commenced playing percussion at the age of 8, following in the footsteps of his father Hayden, who was said to be one of the country's finest percussionists.

Ken commenced with Rockdale Boys, Bexley Boys and later Hurstville Municipal. In 1952 he was a member of the successful Portland Boys' Band that toured NZ. In later years he gave service to Bexley District and Sutherland Shire Bands and is currently a member of St. Mary's District Band.

In 1965 he was responsible for the introduction of percussion as a Solo event and 1967 saw this section in the NSW State titles and 1970 in the Nationals.

As a soloist he won the Nationals in 1970, NSW State titles in 1970, 77, 78, 79, 80, 1982 saw his first appointment as an adjudicator, at the NSW State titles and 1983 to National championship. Ken has written the Tests for Percussion for the Championships of 1983 and 1984.

PROFILE ON JUDGE:
DON CUSHION VICTORIA

Don's early Brass training was with Flt. Lieut. Hughy Niven and the Brunswick City Band, after which from 1950 to 1974 he was Principal Trumpet with the ABC-Tasmania Symphony Orchestra. Since the early 40's he also saw much experience as Musical Director, of Dance, Radio, and T.V. ensembles.

He is now professionally involved in administration nationally for professional musicians and represents Australia annually on international conferences of musicians from major countries.

Since 1969 he has adjudicated many times in State and National Australian Contests as fulfilment of his 38 years experience as a Bandsman and Professional Musician.

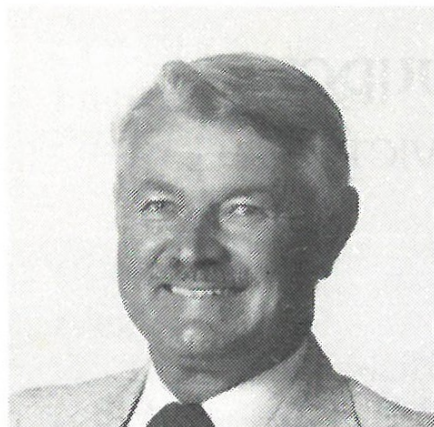

Squadron Leader: Laurie Hicks, O.B.E., L.R.A.M., A.R.C.M. Concert Bands

Formerly Conductor of the Black Watch Band which toured Australia and New Zealand in 1951 and who later became the founder and Director of Music of the R.A.A.F. Central Band.

Laurie had outstanding success with the Hawthorn City Band, winning the Australian Championships for many successive years — and holders of the Victorian Band League Championships.

He has recently been appointed Secretary to the National Band Council and it is hoped his reputation as a musician and organiser of Bands will help him to raise the status of Bands throughout Australia.

PROFILE ON JUDGE:

IVAN JOHNSTON TASMANIA

Ivan is Secretary of the Tasmanian Bands League, a Life Member and holder of the Badge of Honour and a member of the Drill Advisory Board.

He won many awards for Best Drum Major with long experience as Drum Major and also training bands for Quickstep Contests with success in Tasmania and Victoria. For 10 years he has been Band Sergeant of 6th Military District Army Reserve Band; he has adjudicated on many occasions for State Band Contests and was co-adjudicator for the 1983 National Championships in Sydney.
