MESSAGE FROM THE
HON. J C BANNON, MP
TO THE NATIONAL BANDS CHAMPIONSHIPS
30TH MARCH, 1991

The making of music is surely one of the most worthwhile and pleasant of human occupations. It permeates all cultures and has been a feature of all societies since primeval times. It is both a vocation and an avocation. It excites the imagination of all age groups.

South Australia, as a State which prides itself on its excellence in the performing arts, greets the National Bands Championship with a great deal of enthusiasm. You will find the Wayville Showgrounds an excellent venue and we hope your accommodation is all that you would expect.

In some ways we moderns are drenched with music. It pours out from our radio, television, audio and video tapes and the big screen. We hear it in motor cars, in doctor's waiting rooms and even in lifts. Yet there are very good reasons for keeping music live. Nothing can replace the immediacy, the creative tension, the challenge to individual skill and resourcefulness, of live performance. Those competing over this weekend believe very strongly in this approach. The pleasure they will give to others should ensure that the public sees it that way.

I hope that your schedule will enable you to enjoy many aspects of our delightful city.

PREMIER OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

ADELAIDE
SOUTH AUSTRALIA 5000

5th October, 1990

MESSAGE FROM THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE LORD MAYOR OF ADELAIDE,
MR. STEVE CONDOUS

As Patron of the South Australian Band Association, it gives me great pleasure indeed to welcome to Adelaide participants in the Australian National Band Championships, particularly those of you who have come from country areas and from interstate.

Our City is proud to host these Championships, which draw together talented musicians from across the Australia. I know you will enjoy being part of the spectacle, the competition, the fellowship and camaraderie, and I hope that you will leave Adelaide with the sort of pleasant and lasting memories which will make you want to return.

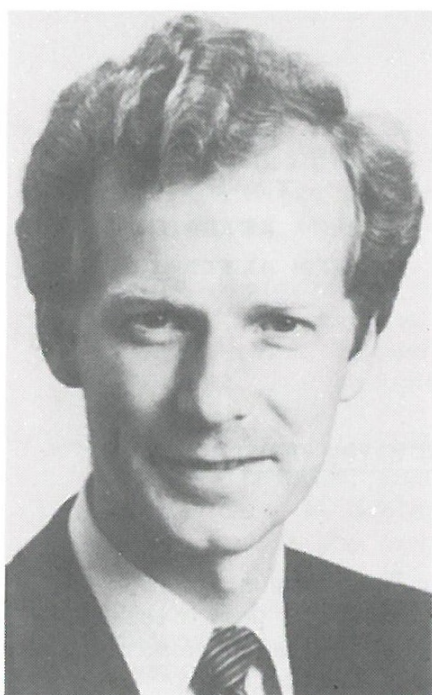

I extend my personal best wishes to all competitors, and to all those involved in the organisation and conduct of what I am sure will be a highly successful and enjoyable competition.

Yours sincerely,

STEVE CONDOUS
Lord Mayor

MESSAGE FROM RICHARD D. MACKIE
MANAGING DIRECTOR
BOOSEY & HAWKES (Australia) PTY. LTD.

Boosey and Hawkes are delighted to help sponsor the 1991 Australian National Band Championships and we hope that every participant will enjoy sharing the musical experiences at this prestigious banding event.

Banding's future is dependent on a very high level of participation and the also on the highest standards of performance. Each year new achievements in this area become more evident. There is increasing awareness from the public that the Nationals not only meet the need of the competitive spirit amongst bands, but that they also satisfy the listening public's interest in excellent performance and entertainment.

We offer our congratulations to all the bands attending and look forward to them giving their best performance during this event in Adelaide.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL BAND COUNCIL OF AUSTRALIA

With so many talented musicians, Musical Directors and Drum Majors from all over Australia it is obvious that audiences are assured of a most enjoyable weekend of Music and Marching! What is not so obvious is the personal commitment and dedication to Banding by so many people that has brought us all to the 1991 Nationals.

First, the efforts of the Organising Committee who have done a tremendous job in attracting so many Bands and Soloists and arranging the Wayville Showgrounds as the main venue. Then there are the players themselves. Just think of the time that has gone into music rehearsals and marching practice. Last but by no means least, the sponsors. On behalf of the National Band Council I extend our thanks to everyone who has given so much of themselves in the lead up to the staging of these, the 1991 National Band Championships and a special thank you to the Major Sponsors: Foundation South Australia and the ever present Boosey and Hawkes, along with the many minor sponsors, from all who will enjoy this great musical event.

We are confident that a great time will be had by all in Adelaide, and, in the light of today's financial climate, we congratulate all participants - you are all winners for getting this far!

R.K. (Keith) Golding
President
National Band Council of Australia
